Closing event of the mastercourse given by teachers of Liszt Ferenc Academy of Music, Budapest, Hungary:

Mr. János DEVICH is a renowned artist: for 15 years he worked as cellist at the Hungarian State Opera House then joined the world-famous Kodály String Quartet. Meanwhile he also pursued a solo cellist career. He has won several international awards and concerts regularly all over the world. He is vice-rector of Liszt Ferenc Academy of Music and also professor at the Department of Chamber Music.

Ms. Éva MARTON's definitive interpretations include the title roles of Tosca, Aida, Salome, La Gioconda, Madame Butterfly and most of all, the title role of Puccini's Turandot. She has been hailed as "the Turandot of today": has sung this role nearly 200 times and with every major opera company including the Metropolitan Opera or La Scala. She is head of the Solo Singing Department of Liszt Ferenc Academy of Music.

Violinist Ms. Eszter PERÉNYI has been giving concerts with the world's leading orchestras and has made several precious recordings. Being devoted to contemporary music, she has performed in numerous world premieres. She regularly teaches at international mastercourses and is often invited to be jury member at international competitions. Ms. Perényi is head of the Strings Department of Liszt Ferenc Academy of Music.
