

UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA
The Wirth Institute for Austrian and Central European Studies invites applications for a

HUNGARIAN DOCTORAL RESEARCH FELLOWSHIP
For advanced students in Hungary

The Hungarian Doctoral Research Fellowship is tenable in the 2007-2008 academic year (1 September 2007 - 31 August 2008) at the Wirth Institute for Austrian and Central European Studies of the University of Alberta in Edmonton, Canada. The Fellowship is valued at CAN $ 24,000.00 and will be paid in equal monthly instalments at the end of each month.

The successful candidate will hold this fellowship at the Wirth Institute for Austrian and Central European Studies, and is expected to be actively engaged in Ph.D. thesis research. Successful candidates are also expected to participate in the Institute's cultural, scholarly and academic activities, particularly the development of academic relationships with institutions in Hungary.

Young scholars from any discipline in the Humanities, Social Sciences or Fine Arts are invited to apply. Candidates should be Hungarian citizens at Ph.D. (all-but-dissertation) level and have an excellent command of spoken and written English. A sound reading knowledge of either a Slavic language or German and a proven research record (ideally in the form of publications), would be an asset.

The University of Alberta welcomes diversity and encourages applications from all qualified women and men, including persons with disabilities.

Applicants should submit a short English-language description (maximum 500 words) of their research project, a full curriculum vitae, and the names of two references. Application should be submitted both in e-mail to franz.szabo@ualberta.ca and the Ministry of Education and Culture: yvonne.schuchmann@okm.gov.hu , and in hard copy to the Wirth Institute for Austrian and Central European Studies, 300 Arts Building, University of Alberta, Edmonton AB, Canada T6G 2E6.

Application deadline for e-mail version: 1 April 2007

Hard copy may arrive within the subsequent 7 days.

Finalists in the competition for this fellowship will be interviewed in Budapest by the Director of the Wirth Institute for Austrian and Central European Studies in mid-May 2007. Successful candidates will be advised by e-mail beforehand of the specific date, time and place of the interview.

Decisions will be announced by 4 June 2007.
